

IS MURDERED

Bullets from the gun of a thief Tuesday night ended the life of Charles Fink Sr., 39—last member of a family marked by tragic violence. Three ago, Fink's mother, a widow, and his brother were murdered by a robber who entered the mother's grocery on Gentilly Hwy. in New Orleans.

Fink was a boarding student at St. Stanislaus when a negro named Dodoo Robert killed his mother and brother.

John Egloff reported that Fink's wife told him her husband had heard a noise in the yard Tuesday night before midnight. He took a flashlight and stood in the doorway of the house.

"I've got you now," said Fink, and then I heard two shots. Charles fell into the room," Fink told the sheriff.

Fink had been shot twice.

One bullet entered his chest and was lodged in the large chest bone. Fink then apparently had spun around, for the second bullet had entered his back and passed through his body. The spent bullet was found in the front of his undershirt.

He was dead when doctors and the sheriff, summoned by Mrs. Fink, arrived.

Ray Cabell and Pat Favre Reign Over Youth Center Harvest Ball

Ray Cabell and Pat Favre reigned last night over a festive Harvest Ball held at the Youth Center of Bay St. Louis.

Linda Auderer was maid of honor to her majesty and Tom Kidd was duke of honor. Comedians were Miss Bar-Kidd and Henry Lang, maid of honor.

Miss Cabell wore a regal gown of light pink nylon tulle, made of full sweeping skirt and fitted bodice. A bias fold of the skirt flared around the shoulders.

She was presented a bouquet of chrysanthemums and fall flowers matching her gown. Miss Auderer selected a gown of shrimp colored nylon tulle, flared length, and Miss Kidd a ballerina length melon colored nylon tulle.

Last year's queen, Miss Carol Johnson, placed the crown on the head of this year's queen.

The Youth Center was gay with autumn leaves and cornucopias of the full harvest season. Dances of young people enjoyed the revelries, and dancing last night.

Lucien Gex Sr. is a patient in St. Joseph Hospital, New Orleans. The family reports that he is feeling better but that the doctors are keeping him under observation for a while longer.

Pictured above at Christ Episcopal Day School are Mrs. Juan del Carmen with her niece, Allice del Carmen, and her daughters, Jackie and Anna Luz. Mrs. del Carmen, a resident of Guatemala City and Bay St. Louis, recently spoke before the student body of the school on the subject "Children of Central America."

At the conclusion of her delightful and informative talk, her daughters and her niece, dressed in costumes of Nicaragua and Guatemala, entertained the audience with native songs and dances of their countries. As the students left, they were invited to examine a display of colorful linens, purses and other handmade objects from Guatemala.

INCREASE IN OAA CHECKS IN DECEMBER

The Mississippi Department of Public Welfare will increase the old age assistance checks of many persons who are already receiving this kind of help. The raises will be made in the December checks of persons who are not already getting the legal maximum of $30 and who do not have other changes in their circumstances that will affect the amount of their checks.

The Welfare Department has found that it will have enough money to make the raises from funds that it had expected to have to use to put on additional people who are sixty-five or over and become unable to help themselves. Not as many people have applied this fall as had been expected. This is due to the most part to the good crop year and more jobs open both to the aged and to their immediate family.

Also the opening up of benefits under the program of old age and survivors insurance (usually known as "social security") has provided for some persons who would otherwise have applied for old age assistance.

Pvt. Andre Arceneaux, USA, is home for about ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Arceneaux Sr. Pvt. Arceneaux completed his basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark., and will be stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga. with the Signal Corps when he returns to duty.

BAY MAN IN MANEUVERS

Pvt. Fred G. Cabell, son of Mrs. Leonide P. Cabell of Bay St. Louis is among the participants in Operation Sagebrush in Louisiana. This is the largest joint Army-Air Force maneuver since World War II.

Cabell, a computer in Headquarters and Service Battery of the 3rd Infantry Division's 39th Field Artillery Battalion, is regularly stationed at Fort Benning, Ga. He entered the Army in January of 1955 and completed the basic training at Camp Chaffee.

Pvt. Cabell is former assistant manager of Tower Bowling Lanes, Beaumont, Tex. He attended St. Stanislaus here and Lamar State College of Technology in Beaumont for a year.

POST OFFICE TO BE REPAINTED, REPAIRED

Postmaster Fred L. Herlihy revealed this week that the local Post Office will soon receive a complete paint job on the exterior and interior as well as minor repairs.

SPECIAL SHOW TO BENEFIT YOUTH CENTER

Horatio Favre, manager of the A. & G. Theatre, will give the proceeds from a special matinee on Nov. 30 to the Fund Drive of the Bay St. Louis Youth Center. The show will begin at 3:15 in the afternoon and will be for adults and children.

SAFE DRIVING OR SUDDEN DEATH?

Safe Driving Day Set For Thurs, December 1

Mississippi again will join with the nation Dec. 1 in observing "Safe Driving Day." Success or failure of the safety emphasis may well depend on the driving manners of motoring Mississippians.

Object of "S-D" Day is an all-out effort to prevent traffic accidents during the 24-hour Safe Driving Day period, thus demonstrating that if Mississippi highway drivers can be kept accident-free, it can be done every day.

Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong, the state's "Safe Driving Day" coordinator, stresses that the letter and spirit of all traffic rules and regulations be observed Dec. 1.

Motorists are requested also to drive backward in an effort to be courteous to other drivers and pedestrians.

Accidents can be eliminated if everyone cooperates.

Each major town and community in Mississippi has a SD Day chairman coordinating the Safe Driving Day locally.

Last SD Day, Dec. 15, two fatal crashes in Mississippi killed three persons. More than 20 traffic injuries were reported during the daylong safety period, which, according to Commissioner Birdsong, was a very poor showing for Mississippi to make. Not a single fatal accident had been reported during the five days prior to Dec. 15.

L & N EMPLOYEE INJURED IN FALL

S. W. Denney, 52, a crane operator for the L & N Railroad, was injured last week in a fall while on his job.

He was hospitalized at King's Daughters Hospital and treated for injuries to the ribs. This week he was discharged to his home in Moorhead, Ky. He had been staying in Bay St. Louis prior to his injury.

BAND AUXILIARY MEET NOVEMBER 29

The St. Stanislaus Band Auxiliary will meet in the Stanislaus Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 8 p.m.

Members are urged to attend as most important business discussion is on the agenda for the meeting.

YOU BE ALIVE TOMORROW?

Seven Mississippians Are Slated To Die This Weekend

Mississippi Highway Safety Council predicts that seven motorists will be killed in highway accidents over the long Thanksgiving weekend, however, the grim prediction could be mere wishful thinking, according to Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong.

Nine persons were killed in highway mishaps one year ago during the Thanksgiving holidays and nothing has happened this year to indicate that Mississippi motorists have improved their driving habits. Commissioner Birdsong pointed out that the Highway Patrol bases its holiday death toll predictions on several factors, chiefly estimated number of motor vehicles to be on the highways, previous death tolls, and public attitude.

"And we always take the minimum figure as our prediction, then step up enforcement and do everything within our power to keep the slaughter within that number," he said. Highway accidents are unnecessary and could be prevented if every driver would apply the Golden Rule of driving: Drive as you would have others drive. During the four-day Thanksgiving holiday one year ago, 231 accidents were reported. In addition to the nine killed, 105 persons were injured, some seriously.

During the 1953 holiday, six motorists perished in highway accidents and 89 were injured. "It will take more than luck to keep this year's death toll less than seven," Birdsong stressed. "It will take careful driving on the part of every motorist. But I sincerely feel that the toll can be kept down—to at least seven."

Picard died this spring, but Mrs. Picard carried on his hobby of raising the cane, in his memory. The work is done with feverish haste, as the cane must be very fresh when crushed, to prevent immediately to prevent fermentation. It was about two o'clock on Monday morning when the final jar was sealed. Approximately 75 gallons were made from the cane grown this year by Mrs. Picard.

Bennett also makes syrup from the cane grown by him. This he supplies to members of the club, and the business is a sincere feel that the toll can be kept down—to at least seven.

Bay Youth, 14, Is Killed By Hit-and-Run Driver; 3 Held

Religious Observances Mark Quiet Thanksgiving In Bay

Protestant Churches of Bay St. Louis held Union Thanksgiving Services at 7:30 yesterday evening at the First Baptist Church on Main St.

The Rev. Edward Moran of the Presbyterian Church officiated at the services and preached the sermon.

Schools closed Wednesday and will remain closed until Monday morning, providing a long weekend for scholars and faculty.

St. Stanislaus had a half day of school Wednesday, with boarders being permitted to return to their homes during the afternoon hours.

St. Joseph Academy began their holiday with dismissal of school on Tuesday afternoon. No classes will be held until Monday.

Public schools of Bay St. Louis had classes all day Wednesday and will not reopen until Monday at the regular hour.

Thanksgiving week services were held at Christ Episcopal church as follows:

Wednesday, Holy Communion at 10 a.m.; Sunday School Thanksgiving Service, 3:30 p.m. at the church; and Thanksgiving Holy Communion was held today at 8 a.m.

Advent Corporate Communion for men and boys will be held at 7:30 a.m. Sunday at the Episcopal Church. Breakfast will be served following the service. Morning Prayer and sermon at 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.; Sunday school at 9:12 South Beach at 9:30 a.m.

Four masses were said this morning at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church: at 6 a.m., 7 a.m., 7:30 a.m. and at 9 a.m. While not a Holy Day of Obligation, the pastor had announced that all parishioners were expected to attend services today.

THANKSGIVING, 1955

THANKSGIVING IS MORE than just turkey, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie. More than just a day for attending or watching on our TV sets a football game or some other form of sport. It's a spirit of gratitude, too. A day for reminding ourselves to kneel and thank God for the many blessings he has bestowed upon us during the past year.

Customs, costumes, mores have changed but the spirit of Thanksgiving is the same today as it was more than a hundred years ago, when the Pilgrims gave thanks to God for the bountiful harvest that was to keep them in food through the coming year.

Let us pause, as our forefathers did, and give thanks for our many blessings: For the relative peace of today's world—the prosperity of our country—and the love and security of our own families.

Let's not take these blessings for granted. They are worth working for, and are worth thanking God for making it possible to work for them.

Whatever your religion, if at all possible go to church on Thanksgiving and say a prayer of thanks.

GOOD CANE CROP GROWN IN BAY ST. LOUIS CITY LIMITS

Sugar cane likes Bay St. Louis. Bennett on grounds owned by him and Picard was able to not only have delicious home made syrup for his own use, but also to supply his friends and employees, both here and in New Orleans, with the product.

Each year, the cane was planted and the juices crushed and boiled to produce the syrup in the golden autumn days.

Picard died this spring, but Mrs. Picard carried on his hobby of raising the cane, in his memory.

The work is done with feverish haste, as the cane must be very fresh when crushed, to prevent immediately to prevent fermentation. It was about two o'clock on Monday morning when the final jar was sealed. Approximately 75 gallons were made from the cane grown this year by Mrs. Picard.

Bennett also makes syrup from the cane grown by him. This he supplies to members of the club, and the business is a sincere feel that the toll can be kept down—to at least seven.

Edgar Moran Jr., 14-year-old Bay St. Louis boy, died Monday about 9 o'clock, the victim of a hit and run driver.

The victim was the son of Mrs. Sam Benigno of Bay St. Louis and Edgar Moran Sr., of New Orleans.

C. E. Shine, 40 year old Waveland negro, is charged with manslaughter as a result of the death. Two other occupants of the car driven by Shine, Walter Bridges, about 35, Waveland, and Billy Boy Andrews, 33 year old Gulfport residents, formerly of Waveland, are being held in the Hancock County jail, as accessories to the death of young Moran.

The three negroes were arrested in Waveland following a tipoff to authorities that a blood-spattered car with broken right front light and broken windshield was seen in Middletown section of Waveland in front of the Shine home. Moran with a companion, Charles Giametta, was returning home following an evening spent at the Teen Age club. The boys were riding bicycles, traveling on the Old Spanish Trail.

A car passed and Mrs. Dorothy Vairin, inside her home on the Trail heard a crash and a scream. She ran from the house, and she and the Giametta boy saw the bicycle of Moran, but did not see him at first. He was found by them further down the road. Mrs. Vairin, immediately ran into the house and called for an ambulance and the authorities. The boy was rushed to King's Daughters' hospital and then to Baptist Hospital in New Orleans, by Fahey's Ambulance Service. The accident occurred shortly after midnight Saturday.

Sheriff John Egloff, Constable Nolan Kingston, State Highway Patrolmen Wm. Kenny and F. Curren, and Deputy Pete Noto, and Waveland Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois began an immediate search for the car.

It was later in the morning when they were given the information by a Waveland resident that led to the arrest of the three negroes.

All three negroes were charged with being drunk, reckless driving and leaving the scene of the accident.

Following the death of the boy Monday, Sheriff Egloff formally charged Shine with manslaughter and the two occupants of the car with being accessories.

SSC BAND AUXILIARY MEETS

The Saint Stanislaus Band Auxiliary had its first meeting last Wednesday night in the music hall of the school.

Brother Romuald opened the meeting by welcoming the ladies and thanking them for their generous cooperation to the band by devoting their time and services to help the band.

It was decided that, in order not to annoy the public with repeated requests for donations, the organization would sponsor one big event. This will be in the form of a big card party.

In conjunction with this affair there also will be a "sweepstake" list of about 15 prizes, each valued at not less than $5.00. The same person will be able to win more than one prize.

Some of the prizes are valued at as much as $10.00 each.

It also was agreed that the organization would operate without the formality of officers.

However, Brother Romuald appointed Mrs. Arthur Chapman as Recording Secretary and Mrs. Walter J. Phillips as Treasurer. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Next meeting was set for Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. in the music hall.

NAMED TO HONOR SOCIETY

At a recent ceremony held at Alcee Fortier High School in New Orleans Miss Lynne Lennor was selected as one of thirty from fifteen hundred as a member of the National Honor Society, an organization comprised of outstanding students throughout the country.

Judging is based on scholarship, high scholastic aptitude, social character, and school and community service.

Following the ceremony, Lennor and the other members of the society were presented with their diplomas by the principal of the school.

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING AT HOME

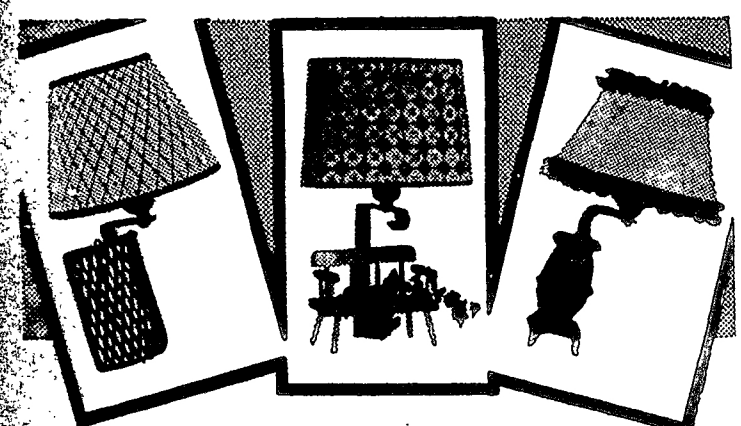

We don't mean to preach, or try in any way to reform the good people of our community by telling them what they should do. They are free and of age to know their own minds. Consequently they should know that when they BUY AT HOME, their money is kept in local circulation, to be returned to them in the way of salaries and other various financial transactions.

The Christmas season is upon us and we feel quite sure that if you visit your local stores, you can almost surely find what you want at the price you want to pay and in line with prices in other towns. Take, for instance, the toy business. We have visited many of the local stores, and can truthfully say that their selection of Christmas Toys is comparable to any of the big city stores, and the prices on many of the nationally advertised toys are standard here as well as any place in the country. In some instances some prices are lower here because of the smaller overhead.

Such being the case, why not give your local merchants a break just as he is giving you a break by supplying you with the best available line of merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

When a team goes out on the field of combat, it can only perform its best when it has the united efforts of every member of the team. And so it is with a community. It can only survive and prosper through the combined efforts of its merchants and the people who support them.

If it can be bought at home, then why go elsewhere?

Flink, arrived at the scene. Sheriff Egloff said an empty cartridge case found near the Flink auto came from a .22 caliber automatic.

Sheriff Egloff, Constable Nolan Kingston and Deputy Sheriff Stan Peterson investigated the shooting. It is assumed by them that more than one person was involved.

A car was reported to have started as soon as the second shot was fired. The car roared from the driveway backward, hitting a pine tree in the yard as the culprits fled.

Apparently the thieves had been attempting to steal the tires from Flink's car when surprised by the victim, as the rear bumper of the Flink car had been jacked up.

Flink has two children. His daughter, Barbara, is a sophomore in Loyola University in New Orleans. She was valedictorian of her class at St. Joseph Academy, where she was graduated in 1954. Charles Jr., 8, attends SJA.

Flink operated a candy and souvenir shop on US 90 near his residence when his death occurred. He was active in the Knights of Columbus and Holy Name Society and other civic and religious organizations.

Mrs. Flink is the former Bernice Johnson of Bay St. Louis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson Sr.

She is a former president of the St. Joseph Academy Mothers Club and also is active in community affairs.

Funeral services for Flink are scheduled for this morning.

ROCKS PELT TROJANS 52-0 IN GRID SEASON WINDUP

By Christopher Boll
St. Stanislaus' Rockchaws coasted to their third victory of the season when they downed the McDonogh Trojans 52-0 at Stanislaus Stadium Friday night.

Willie Rhodes and Kenny Artigues were the big guns for Farley Day's Rockchaws. Rhodes tallied twice while Artigues tossed for one score and booted two extra points.

Stanislaus chalked up 19 points in the first two frames. Then after a scoreless third period, broke through for two final-period tallies.

Top pass play for the Gulf Coast eleven was a 31-yard gain by the combination of Artigues and Rhodes.

Tammy Monti made the game's longest TD run with a 41-yard gallop in the second stanza.

Don Butler was the Trojan's workhorse but failed to pound past the 40-yard line of the Rockchaws.

Score by quarters:
St. Stanislaus 19 19 0 14-52

Scoring touchdowns: St. Stanislaus, Rhodes 2, Artigues, Decur, Vasquez, Monti, Fluoguer, Cuevas. Points after touchdowns: Artigues 2, conversions; Heweck, conversion; Fazio, run; W. Favre, run.

First downs: St. Stanislaus 10, McDonogh 2.

Penalties: St. Stanislaus 30 yards, McDonogh, 0.

FORESTRY TOUR PLANNED IN SOUTH MISSISSIPPI FOR SENATOR STENNIS

State Forester Jim Craig and Mississippi National Forest Supervisor Ernie DeSilva today announced that arrangements are complete for a two-day tour of South Mississippi forestry operations to acquaint US Senator John Stennis with the very latest progress in forestry in South Mississippi.

Senator Stennis, guided by Mr. Craig and Mr. DeSilva, will tour portions of the National Forest located on the Chickasawhatchy Ranger District of the National Forest. Another operation of interest that will be covered is the Ashe Nursery which is operated by the US Forest Service for the production of forest tree seedlings and for the extraction of forest tree seed from cones. During the afternoon the group will visit the Newton Naval Stores plant and field operation near Wiggins and talk with a group of local interested persons.

During Tuesday evening, Stennis and his escorts will engage in a round table forestry discussion among various representatives of Lumber, Pulpwood, Naval Stores Industries, County Supervisor and State Legislators in Gulfport.

On the following day, Wednesday, Nov. 23, Stennis and the group will inspect the Airey Tower operated by the US Forest Service and the Southern Institute of Forest Genetics at Gulfport. At the Institute Craig will show the Mississippi Forestry Commission's film, "Developing Pedigreed Trees," to the group.

Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to a tour of the University of Mississippi forest lands near Wiggins, where the University Forest program will be explained. A visit will later be made to the University Fire Tower operated by the Mississippi Forestry Commission. There the touring group will observe a demonstration of fire suppression by Mississippi

Forestry Commission Crews.

The Senator and the others on the tour also will inspect the Red Creek Game Management Area in the Leaf River Division of the DeSoto National Forest.

The final inspection of the day will be a visitation of the Dantzler Lumber Company Tree Farm operations.

The US Bureau of Public Debt has announced that it will accept for redemption any of the co-ownership provisions of Series E and H-United States Savings Bonds. In response to inquiries being directed to the Treasury Department, Newell N. McAlpin, State Sales Director, gave the following explanation of the provisions:

"Although individual purchases in any calendar year of series E Bonds are limited to $20,000 ($15,000 purchase price), and Series H Bonds to $20,000 (purchase price), additional holdings by individuals are allowed under co-ownership provisions.

"For example, take the case of a family of four, none of whom is registered owner or co-owner of Series E Bonds purchased in this calendar year; the husband can purchase $20,000 (maturity value in E Bonds in his own name, and if he wishes, he can also purchase an additional $20,000 (maturity value) in E Bonds registered as follows: $20,000 in his name with his wife as co-owner; $20,000 in his name with one child as co-owner, and $20,000 in his name with the other child as co-owner."

Thanksgiving

Lord God, we give Thee thanks this day,
Humbly, in our simple way.
For all the gracious gifts which Thou
Hast deigned so richly to endow—
For life—for every passing minute—
For this, Thy world, and all things in it!

We give Thee thanks, dear Lord, for these—
The green beneficence of trees;
The kindness of rain, the birth
Of springtime from a barren earth—
The earth that bears the bread we break
In gratitude for Thy sweet sake;

We thank Thee, Lord, for healing song;
For courage, wise and tall and strong;
For all the laughter and the tears
That mould the pattern of our years;
For truth and trust and constancy;
For faith that lets us lean on Thee!

We give Thee thanks for ears to hear;
For feet to tread Thy pathways here;
For hands to touch, and lips to sing
Thy name in every lovely thing—
For friendship with our fellow men—
But mostly for Thy love.

AMEN

The Special Education Class had visits from 11 parents and friends during National Education Week. Mrs. Hoda and daughter, Fay Ann, gave the Special Class a surprise birthday party Monday. Cakes and punch were served to the pupils.

National Education Week was observed in a grand way in the New Elementary School. Open house was held from Monday through Friday. In all, 75 parents visited.

Teachers and pupils were complimented upon the excellent work and especially the care of the new school in general.

The fourth grade will have a program Friday morning at 8:45 a.m. in the high school auditorium. Everyone is invited to attend. Students were very eager to see the long awaited surprise of the journalism class.

Book week was slated for the 13 through the 19. Posters were the means of advertisement. Some of the posters were very eye-catching. All of them were unique.

Everyone please observe the skill of the workers and use the library more often. Homecoming court was

Band Closes 1955
Grid Show Season

Bay High Band brought its 1955 football show season to a close Saturday night, Nov. 19 at the Homecoming Game. The pre-game parade to the stadium started the festivities. The band's half-time show was entitled "Sky Ride." Through field formations and music the band took the spectators on a space ride through the heavens.

While the band played "The Air Corps March," the band entered the football field in a space ship formation. The first formation on the "Sky Ride" was a visit to a star while the band played "Star Dust." The majorettes danced in the center of the star.

The second field formation was a moon, a crescent moon like the one shining over the stadium and the Homecoming Court. The band played the ever-popular "In the Light of the Silvery Moon."

From the crescent formation the band went into a sun formation, playing "You Are My Sunshine."

To make the glory of the spectrum, the band placed yellow, pink and green pom-poms on the field. Like a rainbow in the sky, the rainbow lingered on while the band marched off to the strains of "The Air Corps March."

The band enjoyed playing for the football season and hopes that the fans enjoyed hearing them play and watching their show and that their playing the traditional fight songs of Bay High sometimes encouraged the Tiger team.

The Workshop sponsored by the Mississippi Economic Council at Mississippi Southern last Thursday, Nov. 17 was attended by the following people:

E. E. Breland and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, representing the County School System, and Mayor John A. Scaife, Commissioner Cyril Glover, Warren Traub and Superintendent S. J. Ingram, representing the City School System.

The workshop was arranged in order to clarify the duties and functions of school board members and boards of trustees and Administrators under the new

AROUND THE CAMPUS AT— ST. STANISLAUS

Nine students from the St. Stanislaus Band will go to Jackson Saturday, Dec. 3 to be auditioned for membership in the Lions All-State Band.

The following students have been accepted for audition: Edsel Aucoin and Robert Hubbard, saxophone; Edward Dufresne, Jack Crais, cornet; Hector Bourg, Charles Bishop, trombone; James Raymond, clarinet; George Ferry, and J. Joyce on the snare drum.

Last year's band was acclaimed National Champions. Representing St. Stanislaus last year on the All-State band were Gerald Bienvenu, who was graduated in May, and James Raymond, also being auditioned this year.

Brother Romuald, S.C., band director, will accompany the band members to Jackson.

Brother Linus, S.C., principal of St. Stanislaus, will represent the school this coming week at the annual convention of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The meetings will be in Miami Beach, Fla., from November 28 until December 1. Also meeting at the same time will be the Southern Regional Unit of the National Catholic Educational Association and the Southern Association of Independent Schools. Brother Linus will represent St. Stanislaus at the latter two conventions also.

Further increases in estimates of final yields brought the Mississippi forecast of cotton production in 1955 to 2,000,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

In only three previous years of record—1937, 1948 and 1953—has Mississippi produced over two million bales of cotton, and this year's crop is being harvested from the smallest cotton acreage since 1871.

OUR STATE

MODERN COTTON PICKING

Cotton is still picked by hand in some sections of the state, but many Mississippi cotton planters harvest it in the more modern way.

The fertile Mississippi Delta embracing 6,307,000 acres is the richest farm land on earth. The Mighty Mississippi River deposited top soil to form the black table top flat land which consistently smashes national agricultural production records.

DEAREST ENEMY ON OLDS TV SHOW NOVEMBER 26

Cyril Ritchard, Anne Jeffreys, Robert Sterling and Cornelia Otis Skinner will head the all-star cast in the Rogers and Hart musical spectacular, "Dearest Enemy," which the Oldsmobile Dealers of America will present on Saturday, Nov. 26, from 9 to 10:30 p.m. EST over the NBS-TV network.

Max Liebman is producing and directing the extravaganza.

"Dearest Enemy," which was a captivating Broadway success, is set in old New York of Revolutionary Days and is based on a true historical event—that of a trick played on the British by a beautiful widow, Mrs. Margaret Murray, who kept the entire British General Staff entertained and diverted while American General Israel Putnam escaped with his troops to join General Washington.

Cyril Ritchard, who will portray the witty General Howe, delighted the nation with his electric performances on TV as Captain Hook in "Peter Pan," as the star of "The King and Mrs. Candler" and many other video vehicles.

Anne Jeffreys and Robert Sterling, who respectively play Mrs. Murray's niece and a British captain in love, are the Mr. and Mrs. acting team which catapulted "Topper" into top TV ratings.

Cornelia Otis Skinner, who will play the sagacious Widow Murray, is known throughout the United States for her brilliant one woman shows, her plays, books and lecture tours.

This 18th Oldsmobile spectacular will be telecast in compatible color as well as black-and-white.

delivery, contact the Post Office, and leave instructions as to where the plants can be delivered. A cool basement, garage or shaded porch is always better than a mail room for storage of dormant plants.

3. Best of all, if you are home, have the ground well prepared, and make your planting as soon as possible after delivery. Early planting, liberal watering, and following the sender's instructions will insure best growth of all plant materials.

STILL TIME TO PLANT WINTER GRAZING CROPS

If you want to get two crops off your pastures this year there's still time—until mid-November in the Central and Southern areas of the State—to plant the second one.

Oats, wheat, ryegrass, crimson clover, red clover and wild winter peas can be drilled directly into the permanent pasture sod. The sod seeder makes a narrow slit in the existing sod and applies the fertilizer and seed in one operation. The oats or wheat may be fertilized from mid-January on through the spring months.

In addition a grain yield can be harvested in June. Good quality oats or clover hay may be harvested during the spring by seeding the desired hay crop directly in the permanent pasture sod.

STATE MEETING OF WORKERS OF MISS. HEART ASSOCIATION TO BE HELD IN JACKSON DEC. 1

First state meeting of volunteer workers in Mississippi Heart Association history will be held in Jackson Thursday, Dec. 1.

The one-day training school for Heart Month will be held in the Arlington Room of the Robert E. Lee Hotel and will be attended by heart chapter officers and workers from over 40 counties. Mrs. C. R. Beyer is Hancock County chairman.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. in the Robert E. Lee Hotel and the meeting will open at 10 a.m. with greetings from the Mississippi State Medical Association brought by Dr. Lamar Bailey of Kosciusko, president.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

BY HOWARD E. SIMMONS
Hancock County Agent

Hogs

If flu invades your herd of hogs, you are in for serious trouble. Fall pigs may be extra susceptible to swine influenza because of the chilly, changeable weather at this time of year. Adequate housing, good bedding and proper ventilation will help prevent outbreaks in your herd.

While hog influenza is not a major killer, it takes a great economic toll as it lowers feed efficiency, causes losses of weight and lowered fertility.

Steps to help prevent outbreaks of swine influenza in Mississippi pig herds include:

1. Provide well-bedded, well-ventilated and draft-free quarters. Avoid overcrowding and night piling.
2. Watch for signs of influenza like listlessness, coughing, watery eyes, loss of appetite and difficult breathing.
3. Isolate newly purchased pigs for at least two weeks before allowing them to mingle with the home herd.
4. In the event symptoms show up, have the trouble diagnosed immediately so that proper treatment can be started.

Peach Trees

Peach trees set in December seem to fare better than those planted at other times during the dormant season. Early winter planting gives young trees a head start at making root growth and getting a firm footing in the soil. December planted trees are ready to make rapid growth when spring comes. Then they are in better shape to withstand summer and early fall droughts.

Ground should be prepared before the nursery stock arrives. Holes should be deep and large enough to hold the roots without bending them. Trees should be set without delay.

Order your nursery stock now while the good quality plants are still available. Make sure that you order adapted varieties. June-bud or one-year-old trees are the best type of stock to use. Plants should be two to three feet tall and about one-half inch in diameter.

For a list of varieties that do well in your area, see your local county agent.

Dairying

Dairymen who feed concentrates by the "guess" method usually find themselves going in the hole. In most instances, when they change to a method of accurate records and feed according to production, they find a great saving in grain concentrates.

An important step in feeding is to make use of all the good roughage the cows can eat.

Poultry

A hen is not an egg factory. You cannot treat a hen as a machine. They are living animals, and as such require and respond to care and attention.

Your pullets need attention... a little attention may be the difference in whether or not they keep on laying.

Choose a sound feeding program and stick to it. Do not waste feed. If you fill the feed hopper completely, birds will waste 42 per cent of the feed. Two-thirds full they waste 15 per cent; one-half full, 5 per cent; one-third full, 2 per cent.

You can save a lot of money on feed costs by not filling the feeders too full. Remember, feed in the litter does not do anyone good; feed in the pullets makes eggs.

Keep feed fresh by feeding two or three times a day. Prevent cannibalism. Management is the big item here. Do not crowd the birds, allow plenty of feeder and watering space, adequate ventilation. Once cannibalism starts it is hard to stop. Some poultrymen are debarking to prevent this.

The men are graded daily on neatness and appearance; all are required to wear khaki uniforms, dark ties, brown shoes and khaki caps. They furnish their own uniforms.

The state feeds them and provides their quarters and equipment. Personal expenses are borne by the trainees.

It is amazing what these men will go through to become Highway Patrolmen. It is also interesting to note how carefully the State Patrol screens the applicants who are permitted to attend the school.

The 33 recruits in training now represent the "cream" of a crop of some 250 original applicants. All applicants were called in by the Patrol for written examinations similar to those used by Army intelligence. After scoring, the upper 30 per cent were then carefully investigated. Highway Patrol screening officials visited the home towns of the men, questioned city officials, police, checked credit references and tried to find as much pertinent information as possible on the moral fibre of the applicants.

Applicants satisfactorily passing the investigations were then called in for interview and physical examinations. Forty-one of the some 250 men were finally approved as Patrolmen, six, however, were unable to enter at the last minute and three left the first week.

A Grand Old Man of the South, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, 88, died in New Orleans Friday, Nov. 18.

The widow of the late John W. Bryan, she is survived by two sons, John W. Bryan Jr. and James F. Bryan. She was the sister of Mrs. Lee Kenney of Bay St. Louis, Mrs. Hugh E. Barakat, Mrs. Clarence Chavich, Albert J. Joubert and William Joubert Jr., daughter of the late Baptiste Gelin and Fortuna Joubert Sr. She was the aunt of Mrs. Virgil Dick and Joseph Fuch of Bay St. Louis.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Nov. 19 from the House of Bullman, with religious services following from the Holy Name of Jesus Church in New Orleans. Interment was in Metairie Cemetery.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Vallon and George L. Seuzeneau III, aged six and ten, celebrated their birthdays together last Friday with a party given in their honor by their parents, at their home on Keller Ave.

Both children were born on Nov. 11. The party included about 20 of Vallon's friends from her first grade class at St. Joseph Academy and about 10 of George's fellow students from St. Stanislaus.

The party was held on the lawn of the Seuzeneau home, and strings of balloons added a very festive look to the yard. In the house where the party goodies were served, pink chrysanthemums and gladioli were used for floral arrangements, and balloons also carried out the party motif. A large square shaped chocolate birthday cake, trimmed in pink, held lighted candles and birthday greetings for both children.

Games were played and prizes awarded the winners.

SMORGASBORD

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill Jr. entertained a group of young people at a smorgasbord on Sunday, Nov. 20, having as guest of honor Miss Lynne Lennox of New Orleans, who is a niece of the latter.

Covering the table was a pink damask cloth on which was an epergne of lavender chrysanthemums and cascading purple grapes. Pink tapers in crystal on either side.

The young honoree, who wore holders flanked the arrangement a becoming bouffant dress of black taffeta, had as complement a corsage of pink carnations. The hostess also wore a portrait semi-formal in black velvet.
